The BAA requires that all participants have adequate insurance coverage in order to participate in any or all BAA activities. The BAA does not provide insurance protection against injury or accident. The BAA does not provide medical or hospitalization coverage with regard to any child's participation in any practice, game or other activity of the BAA. We the parent/guardian of the above-named participant, do assume all the risks and hazards involved with and incidental to the conduct of the activities and transportation to and from the activities; and further, we do hereby release, absolve, indemnify and hold harmless the BAA, its organizers, its sponsors, and any or all its supervisors. Registration only covers a portion of the cost needed to produce a season, therefore, I understand that participation in the 2012 Bingo fundraiser is required. I, the parent/guardian, will furnish upon request of any BAA official, the certified birth certificate of the above-named child. In accordance with all of the above, I hereby give my consent for the above-named child to participate in all athletic activities relating to the 2012 baseball/softball season. I give the BAA permission to use photos of my child in the monthly publication "Play Ball" and on the BAA website. I hereby release the BAA from all liabilities from using the images.
